

PRESIDENT-ELECT CANDIDATES

MARY ANN ETZLER

After 22 years of service to the Orange County Bar, running for OCBA president-elect is a natural transition. As your current treasurer (five years as finance committee member), last year's secretary, and six years as an Executive Council member, my dedication and service are long-standing. I dedicated five of the last eight years creating, implementing, and facilitating the OCBA's national award-winning Leadership Law program, spoke at numerous seminars and events, and twice assisted planning the Past Presidents Dinner. I've recruited sponsors, participated in fundraising and marketing efforts, and brought in affiliate members, who also sponsored OCBA events. I've donated more than 900 hours serving over 30 children as a guardian ad litem, served two years on the Ninth Circuit's Pro Bono Committee, and in 2012 received both the OCBA President's Outstanding Council Member Award and Legal Aid's Outstanding GAL Award. I served on the Self Help Center's panel and helped negotiate the OCBA's contract to provide attorneys for the center. Before my election to the Executive Council, I was CFAWL's liaison to the OCBA for three years, volunteered for Law Week activities, chaired the Liberty Bell Awards committee, and assisted with The Briefs editing.

As president-elect, expect my dedication, service, and commitment to continue!

TONY SOS

The Orange County Bar Association is widely regarded as one of the pre-eminent bar organizations in the country. I am running for president-elect of the OCBA to make it even better.

My focus while in office will be on enhancing the member experience, membership growth, and increased financial strength. I have been actively involved in the OCBA for many years. Currently, I am in my fifth year of service on the Executive Council and my third year of service on the Legal Aid Society Board of Trustees. I was also honored to co-chair the Law Week Committee for two years. I have served as secretary, treasurer, and president of YLS. As president, we accomplished many goals, which included significant growth in monthly luncheon attendance, meaningful reduction of luncheon fee for attendees by creating a sponsorship program still in existence today, and implementation of new positions that focused on membership growth, involvement, and networking.

I believe leadership is about service, and if elected, I will work tirelessly to serve our bar and community. I am asking for your vote and thank you for your consideration.

OCBA 2018-2019 ELECTIONS - OFFICER CANDIDATES

TREASURER (Uncontested)

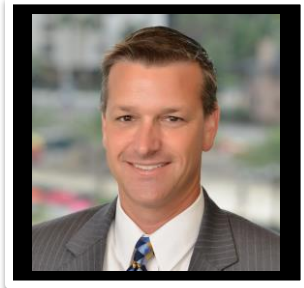

LASHAWNDA K. JACKSON

Thank you for allowing me to continue serving you on the OCBA Executive Council:

- Secretary, 2017-2018
- Executive Council, 2012 - present
- YLS President, 2011 – 2012

VOTE LASHAWNDA for OCBA Treasurer!

SECRETARY (Uncontested)

ERIC C. REED

I have enjoyed serving on the OCBA Executive Council since 2010. I am a partner in the litigation department at Shutts & Bowen LLP and have been involved with the OCBA since joining the bar in 2002. In 2010-11, I was the president of the Young Lawyer Section and have served on the boards of the OCBA Foundation and OCBA Legal Aid Society. I am currently the OCBA membership chair and I host the monthly Members Perk series. Previously, I worked on the planning committee for the OCBA Bench/Bar Conference and was chair of the OCBA Judicial Relations Committee in 2013-14.

I look forward to serving as the secretary of the OCBA.
