1st Year in Florida Bar Government Attorney Free Membership – I certify that I am a current government attorney in my first year of practice in the Florida Bar. The OCBA will provide up to one year of complementary membership, which will expire on May 31st. After my free membership expires, I authorize the OCBA to charge my credit card for 12 equal payments of $10.50 on the 1st of each month beginning June 1 through the following May 1 (total of $120 + $6 in processing fees). The OCBA bar year runs from June 1 through May 31 of the following calendar year. I authorize the OCBA to auto-renew my membership and monthly installment plan arrangement on June 1 of subsequent membership years, unless I provide written cancellation of my membership at least 31 days before the start of the new bar year. Membership rates for subsequent years are subject to change with advance notice from the OCBA. I agree to notify the OCBA as soon as possible if I am no longer employed as a government attorney and no longer eligible for the installment plan.
